EMPOWERING WOMEN
THROUGH SERVICE & ADVOCACY

February 2017

Dear Zontians,

It is our pleasure to invite you to the 23rd Zonta International District 18 Conference in Accra, Ghana from 19th -23rd April 2017.

We look forward to welcoming you to a well planned Conference highlighting our warm Ghanaian hospitality. It will also be a time for our District to come together and make important decisions, elect our new leaders, vote on issues and share ideas relevant also to the advancement of our various Clubs.

Come and enjoy our warm Ghanaian culture as we showcase our rich traditions and our sumptuous cuisine. It will be a wonderful opportunity to renew old friendships and enjoy the unique fellowship that binds us together as Zontians! We will also use the occasion to celebrate our achievements of improving the lives of women and girls in our local communities and around the world through service and advocacy.

On behalf of the Conference Committee and Ghanaian Zontians we look forward to seeing you in Accra in April 2017!

Warmest regards,

Anne-Marie French Cudjoe
District Governor 2016-2018

Opeibea Omaboe
Conference Committee Chairman
